

Mrs. MARGARET T E C H E R T - M A G Y A R Y /b. 1900/

Privat-dozent of Greek philosophy /Hellenistic period/ at the University of Szeged, Hungary.
Chairman of the Hungarian Branch of the International University
Women Association.

Her publications in French:

1. Le plotinisme dans le système de Jean Scot Erigène. Revue Néo-scholastique. 1927. Louvain.
2. La notion de la Sagesse dans les trois premiers siècles de notre ère. Archiv für Geschichte der Philosophie und Soziologie. 1929. Band XXIX. Leipzig.

In Hungarian:

3. Select books in Hungarian translation from the Enneads Plotins. 1925. Budapest, 125 p.
4. History of Greek Neoplatonism. 1934. Budapest. 235 p. Published by the Hungarian Academy of Sciences.

When, in 1932-33, Prof. Zoltán Magyary / University of Budapest/Hungary/ has been as visiting professor, in the USA, he was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Techert-Magyary. That time Mrs. Magyary visited many of the most important women colleges: Barnard College /New-York/, Vassar College /Poughkeepsie/, Radcliff College /Cambridge, Mass./, Simmons College /Boston/, Wellesley College, /Mass./, Mount Holyoke College /Mass./, Smith College /Mass./, College of St. Catherine /St. Paul, Minn./, Goucher College /Baltimore/, Bryn Mawr College /Philadelphia/

Mrs. M. Techert-Magyary would be glad to lecture in some of the above women colleges or also on different universities.

The subjects of her lectures would be:

- Stoic philosophy 3-6 lectures.
- Neopythagorean philosophy, 3-6 lectures.
- History of neoplatonism, 8-10 lectures.
- What is neoplatonism? One synthetical lecture.
- Women in the Greek philosophy. One occasional lecture.

Her connections with American personalities are:

Dean Guildersleave, Barnard College, New-York.

Miss Chandor, New-York.

Dr. Stephen Duggan

Miss Mary Waite

Miss Donick

Institute of International Education, New-York

Mrs. Techert-Magyary is available for lectures in the USA. after October 1938.

HELYTÖRTÉNET

KÉZIRAT

REV. 2017.

