

HARVARD UNIVERSITY
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

LITTAUER CENTER
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

December 6, 1940

To Whom It May Concern:

Joseph Vecsekloy was registered as a student in the Graduate School of Public Administration for the first semester of the academic year 1940-41. He has participated in the seminars of the School and has attended courses offered by the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. Since it was necessary for Mr. Vecsekloy to withdraw before the end of the first semester, he was unable to take examinations and hence we can give no grades for his work here.

Mr. Vecsekloy was enrolled in the following courses:

Government 17a - Municipal Administration
Government 126a - The Administrative Process
Government 13 - American Constitutional Government
Government 148 - Public Administration and Group Participation

He audited the following courses:

Government 5 - Political Theory
Government 106 - History of Political Theory
Government 121a - Modern Political Thought
Government 18 - New Factors in International Relations:
Europe
History 32a - History of Europe in the Nineteenth Century
History 64a - Diplomatic History of the United States

We were very glad to have Mr. Vecsekloy enroll in September as a student in the School. He showed great interest in his work here and we were sorry that it was necessary for him to withdraw on December 7th, in order to return to Hungary.

Sincerely yours,

Pendleton Herring
